

Henry N. Wallace was a laborer who was born and lived in Monroe.

Henry and Catherine (Kate/Katie) Ivey (or Ivy) were married in Monroe, with Lucy Wallace as a witness.

A large picture of Grandma Ivey was hung in the home of Henry Wallace on the mantle [1]

SOURCES:

[1] Recollection of Elsie Wallace Peters, at her home in Lake Mills, to Bill & Nancy Lauzon, Spring, 1994

Katie Ivey (also spelled Ivy in some records) was married 3 times. First to Henry N. Wallace, then Will Denson, and lastly to Rudolph Stauffacher. Rudolph was a mason and plaster who lived in Monroe.

KATIE WALLACE & ARNOLD ZCHOBER

Arnold was rather fond of Brandy. He used to hide his bottle in the garbage can because his wife, Katie, did not support any drinking. [1]

SOURCES:

[1] Recollections of Elsie Wallace Peters at her home in Lake Mills, to Bill & Nancy Wallace Lauzon, Spring, 199

Zernice Schober was born in about 1912 in Monroe, WI. She moved to Rockford. She married Delmar Phelps. [1]

Zernice plays organ and entertained people in nursing homes. She was an artist, and taught the subject. She also taught people how to read. [1]

Delmar worked at the National Lock Co in Rockford, IL and for 27 years at the Rockford Mass Transit System. He retired in 1972. After he died, his body was cremated [1]

Zernice Phelps moved to 294-95th Street, Ocean in Marathon, FL, 33050. She has a wealth of knowledge about the Wallace family [1]

SOURCES:

[1] Recollections of Elsie Wallace Peters at her home in Lake Mills, to Bill & Nancy Wallace Lauzon, Spring, 1994

Nellie Wallace married Albert Schindler at Blanchardville, WI. It is believed that he was related to the Dasher family. Nellie and Albert had 14 children. [1]

SOURCES:

[1] Recollections of Elsie Wallace Peters at her home in Lake Mills, to Bill & Nancy Wallace Lauzon, Spring, 1994